DANIEL IN ALBEMARLE.

A RINGING SPEECH IN FAVOR OF FREE COINAGE OF SILVER.

Lafe Pence, the Colorado Populist, Endorsed the Virginia Senator and Denounced Mr. Cleveland-Other Speakers.

CHARLOTTE VILLE, VA., Oct. 2-Special.-Eccator John W. Daniel, Hon. John E. Massey, Gen. T. L. Rosser, and Lafe Pace, a Populist, of Colrado, addressed an immense audience at the court-house to-day. Senator Daniel made a ringing speech in savor of free coinage. He said that the distrust did not grow out of any act of legislation. The panic came latest to America and affected France, that had the most silver, least of all. The Sherman law was not the cause. When you find gold and silver hoarded alike you are bound to recognize the fact that some broad, recognize the fact that some broad, general agency is causing the depression. He said both parties were divided on the financial measures. financial question. The Democratic party ought not to permit differences on party ought not to permit differences on this one question to cause a breach in the party. The interests of the people of Virginia are more nearly in accord with the opinions of the masses oft he world. The new party is doing more to destroy the prospects of relief than is even the Republican party. He endorsd some parts of their platform, but opposed their doc-trins favoring the issuance of illimita-ble paper money direct to the people. ble paper money direct to the people. He favored State banks, and said nothing was sof greater importance except the free coinage of silver, and the Su-preme Court had decided them constitu-tional.

In reply to a question from General Rosser, whether he proposed to run National and State backs side by side the senator replied that he. The sen-ator's speech was a masterly produc-tion, and produced a favorable impression tion, and produced a favorable impression on a large assembly. He urged the Democratic party to stand together. The party had been the constant friend of the people and was their only hope for relief. In a short speech General Rosser introduced the Hon. Lafe Pence, a Populist of Colorado, who spoke for one hour. His speech was an endorsement of Sendtor Daniel, and a denunciation of President Cleyeland. He charged President dent Cleveland. He charged President Cleveland with being a Republican, and declared that the Democrats had not carried out their promises. The most of his speech was devoted to the financial question, and in favor of free colnage. The Hon. John E. Massey followed him in an able speech, showing up General Field's inconsistencies and the follies of calls were made for Captain Micajah Woods, the Democratic candidate for Congress to succeed Hon. Charles T. O'Ferrall. Captain Woods responded in a brief but stirring speech, which elicited great applause.

A DEMOCRATIC LOVE FEAST.

Col. O'Ferrall's Defence of Party Principles_The Populists.

LEXINGTON, VA., Oct. 2.-Special. Colonel Charles T. O'Ferrall arrived here his morning at 10:30 on the Baltimore and Ohio from Harrisonburg, where he spent Sunday with his family. He was met at the East Lexington station by the correspondent of The Times and at Lexington Colonel J. K. Edmondson and James R. Varner, the party managers, and es-corted to the hotel.

The weather was all that could have been asked for, and when Colonel O'Fer-rall took the stand in the court-room at midday he was greeted by a large body representative people of all parts of the county.

The Colonel was at his best, and spoke for one hour and twenty minutes in his most able and eloquent strain, and at the conclusion of his speech it was the con-sensus of opinion that a man that can make as able an address and such a defence of Democratic principles as he did, is worthy of the honors of Governor. Contrary to expectations, the Hon. Jerry Simpson did not arrive, and thus were all disappointed in the hoped-for joint dis-cussion between him and Colonel O'Fer-date for the Senate from this district, ca cussed State issues in a clear and forcible style. He was followed by ex-Governor Lee, Colonel J. K. Edmondson, R. Grigaby Paxton and Hon. John Randolph Tucker. Colonel Edmondson and Mr. Paxton are the Democratic candidates for the House from this county. The day was a Democratic love feast.

The Third party people, alias Populists met in the grand jury room, and nominated S. T. Ruff and A. A. McCurdy, well known farmers (formerly Democrats) for the Legislature, against the Democratic ticket. It is understood that the Republicans will not have a ticket field this fall, and will support the Populist ticket.

When Sockless Jerry falled to arrive, or. Boyd, of Eagle Rock, Botetourt county, a rampant Prohibitionist, made a speech of over an hour, which was nothing less than a tirade of abuse and denunciation of everybody and every thing that dld not come up to his status of belief. Mr. William A. Ruff, one of the Third party managers, followed in a few remarks, and after he left the stand the chmax was capped by "Simese," a well known negro boy, who took the stand and delivered a regular negro serio-comic stump speech. It was the event of the day from the People's party stand, and the negro created more in-terest and had a larger crowd than his distinguished predecessors on that stand. Ex-Governor Lee, and other distinguished citizens listened to the negro, and the ex-Governor laughed himself blue in the

PETERSBURG, VA., Oct. 2.-Special .-In conformity with the resolution of the City Council, under date of July 1st, 1893, directing the City Engineer to make an examination of the several possible sources of water supply available for the city's use, and to report thereon, with maps, plans, and itemized statement of costs, the City Engineer, John W. Hays, this afternoon made his report to the Council. The report is a very lengthy one, and would make about two columns of The Times.

CHARGE TO THE JURY.

Judge Woods Speaks Plainly in Regard to the Rosnoke Rioters.

ROANOKE, VA. Oct. 2.-Special.-The special grand jury summoned to investigate the recent riot was sworn this morning, and charged by Judge Woods, of the Hustings Court, who started out by saying that no grand jury in its history had been called upon to perform such an important work as that which lies before the present body. He character-ized the body of men who hanged and purned the negro Smith as devils in-pired, and their proceedings as not ally unlawful, but a withering, blightonly unlawful, but a withering, blight-ing curse, and asks that every partici-pant be ferretted out and promising a speedy trial of every man indicted. Judge Woods further said that it had been charged that (citizens had been shot down without warrant of law and without sufficient proposation and used without sufficient provocation, and urged the jury to carefully and thoroughly in-vestigate this phase of the question, and if such charges were found to be well grounded to bring in an indictment against all parties offending, be they high DIPHTHERIA AND SCARLET FEFER The Dread Scourages Playing Havos in Floyd-Political Matters.

FLOYD, VA., Oct. 2.-Special.-A mass meeting of the Republican party of this county was held at the court-house on Friday last to select delegates to attend a convention to be held at Hillsville in October, to nominate a candidate for the Senate, to fill the unexpired term of the late Judge J. W. Hackler. This proceeding is, it is understood, against Mahone's orders and very few of the faithful parti-cipated in the meeting. By actual count there were only eighteen in attendance, and only three of them came in from the country. The rest were drummed up around town. It was decidedly the most spiritless and dolefullooking mass meeting ever heldhere and it is to be hoped that this is the last expiring gasp of the Republican party in this county.

So far the Populists in this county have taken no steps to bring out candidates either for the Senate or House of Delegates. In fact it is not known that they have any kind of an organization here. Diphtheria and scarlet fever prevaile to an alarming extent in the western sec-tion of this county. Mr. Ben. Tarman, a short time since, buried three children in three consecutive days, making ninall. Many other families have been terribly a icted by these dread scourges.

The first frost of the season made its appearance Friday morning.

Coroner Hudson visited the place of the accident, but deemed an inquest unnecessary, as the evidence showed that the youth was unnecested to traveling, and when the name of the station, Overall's, where he lived, was shouted out by the brakeman, he rushed from the car, and plunged one hundred feet to the rocky bed of the creek below. His body was terribly mutilated.

Nominations in Spotsylvania.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Oct. 2.— Special.—Mr. Solon T. Coleman was nom-inated to-day as the Democratic candidate for the House of Delegates from Spot-sylvania county. THE CHARLESTONS WON.

Enright Pitched and His Colts Got One Solitary Eun_Three Double Plays By the Visitors-Game To-Day.

Many a crank would have given a whole depreciated free-silver coined dollar to have been over at Island Park yesterday afternoon, had he known that the Virginias and Charlestons intended giving the public such a brilliant exhibition of the national game. "Just my luck" was the expression used last night, when the news became generally known that the contest had been all that the most fastidious crank could desire, and when the rooters for the Virginias between the acts at the theatres learned that Michael Glassarm Enright had pitched a game of his life, several of them threw their his life, several of them threw their cigarettes away in disgust, and came into the play-houses later with an aroma circling about them like an odor from a well regulated spice factory.

As it was, there were only about fifty citizens to decorate the bleacheries, and increased by a second to the contract of the contract innumerable small boys to decorate the surrounding umbrageous foliage. The game began about 4:30 o'clock, and Enright went into the box for the Virginias.

right went into the box for the Virginias.
Luck was behind the bat. Bradley twirled for the Charlestons, and he was admirably caught by Jones.

The Virginias were first at the bat, and the first three of them ended their careers at first. Two of the Charlestons did likewise, and the third struck out.

In the second O'Rourke found Bradley for a hit, and West followed with a fly to Truby. Luck then sent a hot grounder to Gilman, and a pretty double-play followed. After Bradley for the visitors had gone out on a fly to Napler. visitors had gone out on a fly to Napier, Reiman made the first hit for his team, and stole second. Kain muffed the ball, and reached third, but remained there, Grim and Jones going out at first.

In the third Wells got as far as first on called balls, but Kain followed with a foul to Grim, and the inning ended for the Virginias. In the visitors' half, Blake drove the sphere over the left-field fence, and circled the bases.

Tate commenced the fourth by reaching first on a fumble by Reiman, and went out with Enright on the second doubleplay by the Charlestons, O'Rourke got his first on called balls, and West fol-lowed with a foul to Jones. The visitors went out in the one, two, three, order.

Luck began the fifth and was hit by the ball. He stole second, reached third on an error by Gliman, and scored on Napier's sacrifice. It was one, two, three, with the visitors.

In the sixth, after Kain had sent a liner to Grim, Tate drove the ball to right. Truby then made a fumble of Enright's grounder, and "Pop" reached second. He went out at third. O,Rourke ended the inning with a fly to Grim. In the visitors' half, Blake repeated his performance, and again sailed the ball over left-field fence, scoring the second run for the visitors.

In the seventh, it was one, two, three for both teams, and the same thing for the Virginias' half of the eighth. Blake, with two home-runs to his credit, be gan the eighth for the Charlestons, and banged out a single to right. He stole second, and went out at third by a misjudged play. Gliman followed with two-bagger, and Truby found Enright for a home-run, thus making the score

In the ninth it was one, two, three with the Virginias again and the game ended. The fielding of both teams was splendid(and there is every promise that this afternoon's contest will be equally as good. It will be called at 4:15 o'clock. The score of yesterday's game is as follows CHARLESTONS.

THE STAUNTON TEAM WON. Score of 5 to 2.

The Farmers were defeated this afternoon by the Staunton team in a splendidly played game. Leach and Johnson were the opposing pitchers, and both did first home team at the bat and they were re-tred in regular order. For the visitors O'Hagan got first on a hit to centre field and was advanced to second on Elsey's sacrifice. Johnson filed out to Keifer in right field, who in turn threw the ball to Brodie in time to put O'Hagan out at second. In the second inning Brodie went out at first, Myers hit safely for two bases and went to third on Lang's sacrifice hit, scoring on Quarles' pitch to left field. Leach ended this inning by flying out to Elsey. The Stauntons failed to score in their half of this in-

In the third inning the home boys failed to score, while the visitors, on an error by Brodie, and a home run hit over left field fence by Elsey, scored two runs. In the fourth inning Myers tied the score by knocking the ball over left field fence for a home run, while the Stauntons on an error by Myers, a hit by Frij and a passed ball by Foster, scored another run. Neither side scored in the fifth inning, while in the fourth, after blanking the home team, the visitors accred another run on a hit by Frij, a passed ball by Foster and a hit by Haptman The home team falled to score during the remainder of the game, while Johnson, in the eighth inning, clinched the game by knocking the ball over the right field fence for a home run. The game, it will be seen, resulted in favor of the visitors by a score of 5 to 2. These two clubs will play again to-morrow after-

"We Do Not Know Any Better Than to Protect Our Wives and Daughters."

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 2 .- A special to the News and Courier from Kingstree, S. C., says: "Judge Lynch held court in this county last night in the vicinity of Moore's Cross Roads, about four miles from Lake City, near the Clarendon line. George McFadden, colored, was arraigned before Judge Lynch and a jury of his countrymen, charged with having committed a criminal assault upon Miss Sally Dubose, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. S. There was no blood-thirsty mob crying out for vengeance. The crowd was composed of the best men of the community. He seemed perfectly calm and composed. The crowd was orderly to and composed. The crowd was orderly to the last. After being prayed for, he was asked if he had any dying request to make, and he said: "No." It was then put to a vote how he should be killed, and it was agreed to hang him. During all this time he never moved a muscle, but seemed utterly indifferent to what was going on. When the rope was placed around his neck, and he was told to stand up in a road-cart, he readily did so, and said he was prepared to die and met his God. He said he was ready to go and had no fears nor any requests to make. His lega and arms were pinioned and a large red handkerchief tied over his eyes for a death cap, and then he pleaded earnestly

AN OLD-TIME DUEL.

Neither Principle Remembered Just How it Started.

After the war with Mexico there were two noted characters in New Orleans-Maj. Joe Howell and Maj. Henry, says an exchange. Howelt was noted for marvelous coolness and pluck and Hen-ry was even more celebrated. He was with Gen. Walker in the Nicaraguan expedition. In battle he would rush into the enemy's midst, not caring whether he was alone or not, cutting and slasning among them as if they were so many

There was some ill-feeling between Howell and Henry and one day they met in a bar-room of much repute in those days, on the corner of Canal an St. Charles streets. Both took cocktails and were about to dispose of them when two newsboys began to fight. The cocktails were set down untouched and the majors each backed a boy and egged on the fight. Presently Henry's newsboy began to get the worst of it and soon yelld-ed. Henry remarked that the fight would have been different if be and Howell had the principals. "Yes," said Howen mad the principals. Tes, said howeld, suppose we have it." remarked Henry. With our word Howell pulled out his revolver and was about to proceed when Henry said."Hold on a minute, I'm not ready. Meet me this evening Half-Way house with your and we'll settle it. Here's to you." The glasses clinked and the cocktails vanish ed. Howell went home and took a nap, while Henry stayed and disposed of more cocktails. At about 4:30 o'clock Howell and his

All attemps at reconsiliation falled ed. All attemps at reconciliation failed, however, and the warriors faced each however, and the warriors faced each other. Howell was conspicuous in the pair of white trousers and an aipaca coat. They were to stand at ten paces, fire six shots and advance at will. Howell glanced carefully down the barret of this pictol, and was perceasy ready when the word was given; but Henry let his pistol dangle lazily at his side, and when the signal was given threw his head slowly to one side and fired without taking aim, Both missed. At the second discharge Howeit fired quickly and wounded Henry before he was ready to shoot; he fired again almost instantly, striking Henry in the abdomen. The latter fired wildly and stagger Howell coolly cocked his revolver and fired deliberately at his already woundantagonist, but his own second knocked up his weapon in time to save Henry's life. At it was, it was several weeks be-fore he could be removed to the city.-Chicago News.

The Enrliest Coinage.

The very earliest coinage that can properly be said to be "strictly American" was ordered by the original Virginia Com-pany in the year 1812, only five years after the founding of Jamestown. These coins were minted at Somers Islands, now known as the Bermudas. For a period of more than a quarter of a century after this, however, tobacco and beaver skins were reckoned as lawful currency. In 166 the assembly of Virginia met and declared that it "had maturly weighed and considered how advantageous a quione (coin) would be to this colony, and how much better it would be than a sole depen dency upon tobacco and pelks." After this they provided for the coinage of cop per coins of the denominations of 2 pence The first coinage in America proper was the series of coins "struck" at Hoston under the order of the general court of Massachusetts, passed May 27, 1852, the coins being 3, 6, and 12 pence denominations, "in forme flakte and stamped on one side with the letters"N. E.' and on the other the value of the piece."—New the other the value of the piece."-New York Churchman.
